Module Aims

The aim of this module is to enable students to gain skills to be able to apply their knowledge to theoretical and practical international law problems and scenarios and to evaluate and critique current laws.

Outline Syllabus

A selection of the following:
 Sources of international law.
 Institutions of international law.
 International law and municipal law.
 The state and recognition.
 Territorial sovereignty.
 The law of treaties.

Diplomatic and consular relations.
International environmental law.
Individual criminal responsibility in international law.
The law of the sea.
International humanitarian law.
Jurisdiction and enforcement of judgements.

Module Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this module, students will be able to...

- 1 Critically assess the scope and influence of international law.
- 2 Articulate and evaluate the relationship between national and international law.
- 3 Produce detailed and in-depth reasoned and legally based arguments on key areas of international law.

Learning, Teaching and Assessment Strategy

Learning is supported through weekly 2 hour workshops. These will use practical application of cases and case studies with oral feedback given in the class as an ongoing process. You will be directed to appropriate study text and cases, and will be set tasks to monitor your progress in addition to formal assessment. All teaching will be supported by information supplied on Blackboard, the virtual learning environment.

The module is assessed by two individual assignments that cover all learning outcomes and will give you the opportunity to demonstrate your in-depth knowledge and understanding of international law issues.
