Module Aims
This module aims to familiarise you with the key debates and issues related to Human Rights in both a national and international context

Outline Syllabus
What are Human Rights? The UN Charter of Fundamental Rights The European Convention on Human Rights The Human Rights Act Tensions and conflicts between rights

Learning Outcomes

1	LO1 Explain and Critique legal institutions, legal rules and legal principles in the context of Human Rights
2	LO2 Make and communicate a reasoned logical argument and exercise critical judgment as to the merits of competing arguments in relation to Human Rights
3	LO3 Make use of a variety of different sources of information to underpin legal arguments
4	LO4 Communicate effectively in writing

Learning, Teaching and Assessment Strategy

This module covers Human Rights in a variety of context and introduces you to the key issues and debates in this area of law. Through a weekly 2 hour lecture and 2 hour seminars every 2 weeks you will explore the law which guarantees Human Rights across the globe and discuss and debate issues arising from the those provisions. Throughout the semester you will hone your critical thinking and reasoning skills (LO1 and LO2) which will then be assessed by coursework at the end of the module. The coursework will test your ability to explain issues and debates in Human Rights and comment on them (LO1) and present a clear and coherent argument which is based on a variety of sources (LO2, 3 and 4).
