

Module Details
Module Title	Foundations of Law and Skills
Module Code	LAW7029-R
Academic Year	2022/3
Credits	N/A
School	School of Law
FHEQ Level	FHEQ Level 7

Contact Hours
Type	Hours
Directed Study	60

Availability
Occurrence	Location / Period
BDA	University of Bradford / Semester 1

Module Aims
The aim of the module is part of the induction to the LLM programmes of the School of Law, providing an introduction to the English and International Legal Systems and the sources of Law, and key academic skills, including research and analytical skills. The module is compulsory to all joining the LLM programmes and is particularly useful to you if you have not previously studied law or come from a non-common law background. The module will equip you with knowledge of sources and institutions of law which is essential to allow you to successfully complete the LLM. There will be a diagnostic test at the end to establish a baseline of knowledge to target additional support for students. Based on the results of the test, the LLM programme team will advise students on additional support in the form of additional sessions (e.g. academic skills advice sessions), in the identified areas from the test. The session will be delivered during the LLM course.

Outline Syllabus
The outline syllabus gives you an indication of which topics you will study. This information may be subject to change, so please keep a record of any module announcements regarding changes from the Module Leader, from Canvas, or by electronic communication. - Introduction to common law systems and to international law. - Sources of English law and of international law. - The structure of English courts. - Introduction to key international courts and their jurisdiction. - Essentials of legal analysis (eg, legal research methods, critical evaluation, analysis of legislation and case law).

Learning Outcomes
Outcome Number	Description
01	Identify and explain the key features and doctrines of common law and international law.
02	Identify and explain the structure and functions of English courts and of significant international courts.
03	Outline the sources of English and international law.
04	Outline the essential elements of legal analysis.
05	Apply the acquired knowledge to develop sound legal arguments.

Learning, Teaching and Assessment Strategy
Learning will be supported through pre-recorded online presentations that can be assessed at any time. This module is assessed through a closed book test containing a list of multiple choice questions. If a student fails, a learning support plan will be put in place to ensure the student is able to meet the learning outcomes by the end of the semester.

Mode of Assessment
Type	Method	Description	Weighting
Summative	Attendance requirement	Attendance of the Online Test	100%
Formative	Online MCQ Examination	Online Test (1 Hour)	N/A

Reading List
To access the reading list for this module, please visit https://bradford.rl.talis.com/index.html

Please note:

This module descriptor has been published in advance of the academic year to which it applies. Every effort has been made to ensure that the information is accurate at the time of publication, but minor changes may occur given the interval between publishing and commencement of teaching. Upon commencement of the module, students will receive a handbook with further detail about the module and any changes will be discussed and/or communicated at this point.

© University of Bradford 2022

<https://bradford.ac.uk>