Module Aims
You will be introduced to the concept of a learning organisation, the strategies that can be deployed to help develop learning organisations, and how to build a culture that encourages learning for the benefit of the business.

Outline Syllabus
Organisational structure and group structures. Developing effective group working. Management styles and management control. Culture, motivation, leadership, power, role-playing and working in groups.

Learning Outcomes
Outcome Number	Description
LO1	Develop a broad understanding of the concept of a learning organisation, the key drivers in its development, and the concepts of organisational culture and the learning organisation.
LO2	Identify the complex interrelationships between individuals, their motivations and the organisation's mission.
LO3	Communicate arguments coherently in writing and work co-operatively and engage in shared learning with others.

Learning, Teaching and Assessment Strategy
Theories and underpinning concepts will be presented through a series of lectures. All lectures will be followed by a group discussion to further explore the issues raised. Inter-sessional reading will prepare you to make informed contributions to seminar discussions.
